I. Introduction

Narrator: Increased international participation at this twenty-first National 4-H Club Camp symbolizes the fact that our world is actually growing smaller -- because oceans do grow smaller when we think of other lands in terms of people we know. We're glad to have representatives of some 16 foreign countries here with us. You delegates have met these friends from many lands during the past week. We pause at this time to honor and more formally recognize their presence by introducing each country's delegation. Sixteen nations .. each with a rich heritage, sharing with us our ideas, our dreams, and our plans and efforts to build a better world.

II. Presentation of Country Delegations

Each delegation (in costume if possible) enters through back door as country is named. One goes to center of stage, down center to mike and makes 30-second statement from his country -- then moves to position starting up stage right. Other delegates follow till all representatives form line across front of stage.

III. Narrator: Standing together we pledge ourselves to the task of building a better world. The two basic ingredients of our partnership must be peace and brotherhood. A positive, constructive, cooperative, sharing peace which is more than a mere absence of war. A brotherhood of mutual respect, honor, and appreciation among all men. "Let us be partners in peace and brotherhood" -- From far and near our cry is echoed in many tongues.

- IV. Echo - Each representative from right to left says, "Let us be partners in peace and brotherhood" in native tongue.
- V. Hold Up Signs - Each delegate has sign with one letter on it. When held up they spell "Peace and Brotherhood."
- VI. Song - World Anthem -- First two verses sung by delegate. Band and audience sing last verse with delegate.

Narrator: And now the delegate from North Ireland, Victor Lyttle, accompanied by the United States Marine Band will sing the first two verses of the "World Anthem" and let us all join in singing the third verse.

WORLD ANTHEM

Brother, shout your country's anthem,
Sing your land's undying fame,
Light the wondrous tale of nations
With the people's golden name;
Tell your fathers' noble story,
Raise on high your country's sign;
Join, then, in the final glory,
Brother, lift your flag with mine.

Hail the sun of Peace, now rising;
Hold the war clouds closer furled;
Blend your banners, O my brother,
In the rainbow of the world?
Red as blood and blue as heaven,
Wise as age and proud as youth,
Melt your colors, wonder woven,
In the great white light of Truth!

Build the road of Peace before us;
Build it wide and deep and long;
Speed the slow, remind the eager,
Help the weak and guide the strong,
None shall push aside another,
None shall let another fall,
Work beside me, O my brother,
All for one and one for all!
